United One Source, a leader in the Asset Protection business for more than 24 years, continues to expand with new products. This year, the company introduced new padded Flat Screen TV Bags, which can be used for fine mirrors, pictures, trays, or any items that have surfaces that need to be protected. These are just an example of the many padded furniture products that are designed help you protect your business from unnecessary damage claims.

As the leader in producing moving blankets, padded furniture/appliance covers, and packaging supplies, the company's dominance in product development makes us even more of a "one-stop-shop" for customers.
